- 32 Subject to the provisions of articles 29 and 31, the directors may convene general meetings whenever they think fit.

Notice of general meetings

- 33 At least 14 clear days' notice of each general meeting must be given to all the members and directors, and (if auditors are in office at the time) to the auditors.

- 34 The reference to “clear days” in article 33 shall be taken to mean that, in calculating the period of notice, the day on which the notice is given and also the day of the meeting, should be excluded.
- 35 A notice calling a meeting shall specify the time, date and place of the meeting; it shall (a) indicate the general nature of any business to be dealt with at the meeting; (b) if a special resolution (see article 53) (or a resolution requiring special notice under the Act) is to be proposed, also state that fact, giving the exact terms of the resolution; and (c) contain a statement informing members of their right to appoint a proxy.

- 37.3 (subject to the company notifying members of the presence of the notice on the website, and complying with the other requirements of section 309 of the Act) by means of a website.

Proceedings at general meetings

- 38 No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum is present; 15 or one third of the members, whichever is less, present in person or represented by proxy, shall be a quorum.
- 39 If the quorum required under article 38 is not present within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting, or if during a meeting such a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to such time and place as may be fixed by the chairperson of the meeting.
- 40 The Chair shall (if present and willing to act as chairperson) preside as chairperson of the meeting; if the chair is not present and willing to act as chairperson within half an hour of the time appointed for holding the meeting, the directors present shall elect one of their number to act as chairperson or, if there is only one director present and willing to act, he/she shall be chairperson.
- 41 A director shall, even if he/she is not a member, be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting.
- 42 The chairperson may, with the consent of the meeting at which a quorum is present (and must, if the meeting requests him/her to do so), adjourn the meeting but not for a period in excess of thirty days; no notice need be given of an adjourned meeting.
- 43 A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before the show of hands, or immediately after the result of the show of hands is declared, a secret ballot is demanded by the chairperson, or by at least two persons present at the meeting and entitled to vote (whether as a member or as the proxy for a member).

- 44 If a secret ballot is demanded in accordance with the preceding article it shall be taken at once and shall be conducted in such manner as the chairperson may direct; the result of the ballot shall be declared at the meeting at which the ballot was demanded.

Votes of members

- 45 Every Full Member shall have one vote which (whether on a show of hands or on a secret ballot) may be given either personally or by proxy; Associate Members and Junior Members are not entitled to vote.

- 46 A Full Member who wishes to appoint a proxy to vote on his/her behalf at any meeting (or adjourned meeting):

46.1 shall lodge with the company, at the company's registered office, a written instrument of proxy (in such form as the directors require), signed by him/her; or

46.2 shall send by electronic means to the company at such electronic address as may have been notified to the members by the company for that purpose, an instrument of proxy (in such form as the directors require); providing (in either case) the instrument of proxy is received by the company at the relevant address not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting (or, as the case may be, adjourned meeting); for the avoidance of doubt, in calculating the 48-hour period referred to in the preceding provisions of this article 46, no account shall be taken of any part of a day that is not a working day.

- 47 An instrument of proxy which does not conform with the provisions of article 46, or which is not lodged or sent in accordance with such provisions, shall be invalid.

- 48 A Full Member shall not be entitled to appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion.

- 49 A proxy shall not be entitled to cast more than one vote in his/her capacity as a proxy (in addition to his/her own vote, if he/she is a member of the company), notwithstanding that he/she may have been appointed as proxy by more than one member.

- 50 A proxy appointed to attend and vote at any meeting instead of a member shall have the same right as the member who appointed him/her to speak at the meeting and need not be a member of the company.

- 51 A vote given, or ballot demanded, by proxy shall be valid notwithstanding that the authority of the person voting or demanding a ballot had terminated prior to the giving of such vote or demanding of such ballot unless notice of such termination was received by the company at the company's registered office (or, where contained in an electronic communication, was received by the company at the address notified by the company to the members for the purpose of electronic communication) before the commencement of the meeting at which the vote was given or the ballot demanded.

- 52 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a ballot, the chairperson of the meeting shall not be entitled to a second or casting vote.

Special resolutions and ordinary resolutions

- 53 For the purposes of these articles, a “special resolution” means (but subject to articles 56 to 59) a resolution passed by 75% or more of the votes cast on the resolution at a general meeting, providing proper notice of the meeting and of the intention to propose the resolution has been given in accordance with articles 33 to 37; for the avoidance of doubt, the reference to a 75% majority relates only to the number of votes cast in favour of the resolution as compared with the number of votes cast against the resolution, and accordingly no account shall be taken of abstentions or members absent from the meeting.

- 54 In addition to the matters expressly referred to elsewhere in these articles, the provisions of the Act allow the company, by special resolution:

54.1 to alter its name;

54.2 to alter any provision of these articles or adopt new articles of association.

- 55 For the purposes of these articles, an “ordinary resolution” means (but subject to articles 56 to 59) a resolution passed by majority vote (taking account only of those votes cast in favour as compared with those votes cast against) at a general meeting, providing proper notice of the meeting has been given in accordance with articles 33 to 37.

Written resolutions

- 56 A written resolution can be passed by the members of the company (having been proposed by either the members or the directors in accordance with the procedures detailed in Chapter 2 of Part 13 of the Act) and will have effect as if passed by the members of the company in general meeting; a written resolution is passed when the required majority of eligible members have signified their agreement to it by sending to the company (in hard copy or electronic form) an authenticated document which identifies the resolution to which it relates and which indicates the member’s agreement to it (agreement to which cannot thereafter be revoked).

- 57 For the purposes of the preceding article:-

57.1 the reference to “eligible members” is to those members who would have been entitled to vote on the resolution on the circulation date of the resolution (which is either (a) the date on which copies of the written resolution are sent or submitted to the members in accordance with the procedures detailed in Chapter 2 of Part 13 of the Act; or (b) if copies are sent or submitted to members on different days, the first of those dates);

57.2 the reference to “required majority” is to the majority required to pass an ordinary or a special resolution under the Act, as follows:-

57.2.1 in order to pass an ordinary resolution by way of written resolution, it must be passed (in accordance with article 56) by members representing a simple majority of the total voting rights of eligible members;

57.2.2 in order to pass a special resolution by way of written resolution, it must be passed (in accordance with article 56) by members representing not less than 75% of the total voting rights of eligible members and the resolution must specifically state that it was proposed as a special resolution.

58 For the avoidance of doubt, a resolution to remove a director (under section 168 of the Act) or a resolution to remove an auditor (under section 510 of the Act) cannot be proposed as a written resolution under article 56.

59 For the purposes of article 56, a proposed written resolution will lapse if it is not passed before the end of a period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date (as defined in article 57), and the agreement of any member to a written resolution will be ineffective if signified after the expiry of that period.

Categories of directors

60 For the purposes of these articles:

"Member Director" means a director (drawn from the membership of the company) appointed under articles 62 to 67;

"Appointed Director" means a non member elected director appointed or re-appointed by the directors under articles 68 to 70.

Number of directors

61 Unless otherwise determined by special resolution, the maximum number of directors shall be 9, of whom a maximum of 7 directors shall be Member Directors and a maximum of 2 directors shall be Appointed Directors. The minimum number of directors shall be 4, all of whom shall be Member Directors. In addition, the composition of the board shall reflect the following principles:

61.1 at each annual general meeting, the directors shall endeavour to set aside one of the available places for Member Directors, to encourage that place to be filled through the election of a junior member aged 16 or 17 (but such that, in the event that no suitable candidate within that category comes forward or if no-one within that category is elected as a Member Director, the place may then be filled by any member (subject to article 61.2) irrespective of age;

61.2 no more than 2 Associate Members may serve as Member Directors at any given time.

Election, retiral, re-election: Member Directors

62 Any member who wishes to be considered for election as a director at an annual general meeting must lodge with the company a written notice (in such form as the directors require), confirming that he/she is willing to be appointed; the notice must be signed by him/her and may be lodged with the company at any time before the commencement of the annual general meeting.

- 63 At an annual general meeting the company may elect as a director (a "Member Director") any member who has given notice of his/her willingness to accept appointment in accordance with the preceding article.
- 64 The directors may at any time appoint any member (providing he/she is willing to act) to be a director (a "Member Director"), either to fill a vacancy or as an additional director.
- 65 At each annual general meeting:
- 65.1 any Member Director who was appointed by the directors (under article 64) in the period from the date of the last annual general meeting shall retire from office;
- 65.2 out of the remaining Member Directors, the 2 directors who have been longest in office since they were last appointed or re-appointed shall retire from office.
- 66 If two or more directors were appointed or re-appointed on the same date, the question of which of them is to retire under paragraph 65.2 shall be decided by some random method.
- 67 The company may at any annual general meeting re-elect any Member Director who retires from office at the meeting under article 65 (providing he/she is willing to act); if any such Member Director is not re-appointed, he/she shall retain office until the meeting appoints someone in his/her place or, if it does not do so, until the end of the meeting.

Appointment, vacating of office, re-appointment: Appointed Directors

- 68 In addition to their powers of appointment under article 64, the directors may at any time appoint any non-member (other than an employee of the company) to be a director (an "Appointed Director") providing he/she is willing to act, either to fill a vacancy or as an additional director.
- 69 At the conclusion of each annual general meeting all Appointed Directors shall vacate office.
- 70 Immediately following each annual general meeting, the directors may re-appoint any person who, as an Appointed Director, vacated office under the preceding article at the conclusion of the annual general meeting; the directors may alternatively appoint someone in his/her place or resolve not to fill the vacancy.

Disqualification and removal of directors

- 71 A director shall vacate office if:

- 71.1 he/she ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Act or becomes prohibited by law from being a director or a charity trustee (within the meaning of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005);
 - 71.2 he/she is sequestrated;
 - 71.3 he/she becomes incapable for medical reasons of fulfilling the duties of his/her office and such incapacity is expected to continue for a period of more than 6 months;
 - 71.4 he/she becomes an employee of the company;
 - 71.5 (in the case of a Member Director), he/she ceases to be a member of the company;
 - 71.6 he/she resigns office by notice to the company;
 - 71.7 he/she is absent for a period of more than 3 months (without permission of the directors) from meetings of directors held during that period and the directors resolve to remove him/her from office;
 - 71.8 he/she is removed from office by resolution of the directors on the grounds that he/she is considered to have committed a material breach of the code of conduct for directors in force from time to time (as referred to in article 87);
 - 71.9 he/she is removed from office by resolution of the directors on the grounds that he/she is considered to have been in serious or persistent breach of his/her duties under Section 66(1) or (2) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005; or
 - 71.10 he/she is removed from office by ordinary resolution (special notice having been given) in pursuance of section 168 of the Act.
- 72 A resolution under paragraphs 71.8 or 71.9 shall be valid only if:
- 72.1 the director who is the subject of the resolution is given reasonable prior written notice by the directors of the grounds upon which the resolution for his/her removal is to be proposed;
 - 72.2 the director concerned is given the opportunity to address the meeting of directors at which the resolution is proposed, prior to the resolution being put to the vote; and
 - 72.3 at least two-thirds (to the nearest round number) of the directors then in office vote in favour of the resolution.

Register of directors

- 73 The directors shall maintain a register of directors, setting out full details of each director, including the date on which he/she became a director, and also specifying the date on which any person ceased to hold office as a director.

Appointments to office

- 74 Directors shall be appointed to hold the offices of Chair, Vice-Chair and Treasurer and any other offices which the directors may consider appropriate.
- 75 The appointments under the preceding article shall be made at meetings of the directors.
- 76 Each office shall be held (subject to article 77) until the conclusion of the annual general meeting which next follows appointment; a director whose period of office expires under this article may be re-appointed to that office under article 74 (providing he/she is willing to act).
- 77 The appointment of any director to an office under article 74 shall terminate if he/she ceases to be a director or if he/she resigns from that office by notice to the company.
- 78 If the appointment of a director to any office under article 74 terminates, the directors shall appoint another director to hold the office in his/her place.

Directors' interests

- 79 Subject to the provisions of the Act and of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and articles 6 to 9 and provided that he/she has disclosed to the directors the nature and extent of any personal interest which he/she has (unless immaterial) and has complied with the code of conduct (as referred to in article 87), a director (notwithstanding his/her office):
- 79.1 may be a party to, or have some other personal interest in, any transaction or arrangement with the company or any associated company;
- 79.2 may be a party to, or have some other personal interest in, any transaction or arrangement in which the company or any associated company has an interest;
- 79.3 may be a director or secretary of, or employed by, or have some other personal interest in, any associated company; and
- 79.4 shall not, because of his/her office, be accountable to the company for any benefit which he/she derives from any such office or employment or from any such transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any such company;
- and no such transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be treated as void on the ground of any such interest or benefit.
- 80 For the purposes of the preceding article, an interest of which a director has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him/her to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of his/hers; the references to "associated company" shall be interpreted as references to any subsidiary of the company or any other company in which the company has a direct or indirect interest.
- 81 The directors shall be entitled, for the purposes of section 175 of the Act, to authorise (by way of resolution to that effect) any Conflict Situation that may arise (such that the duty of the director concerned, under that section, to avoid conflicts of interest is not infringed) and to amend or vary any such authorisation; the directors may give such authorisation subject to such terms and conditions as they may consider appropriate and reasonable in the circumstances.

82 For the purposes of article 81, a “Conflict Situation” means any situation or matter (other than one which cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest) in which any director has or could have a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly might conflict, with the interests of the company; and such that:

82.1 the situations and matters which fall within this definition may include (without limitation) (a) a situation where a director of the company becomes an employee, director, member of the management committee, officer or elected representative of a body which is a party to a significant contract with the company (or which is competing with the company in the context of any grant application) and (b) any such situation or matter which relates to the exploitation of any property, information or opportunity (irrespective of whether the company could take advantage of the property, information or opportunity);

82.2 “conflict of interest” for this purpose includes a conflict of interest and duty, and a conflict of duties.

83 For the avoidance of doubt, article 81 shall not apply to a conflict of interest arising in relation to a transaction or arrangement with the company; any conflict of interest of that nature shall be governed by the provisions of articles 79 and 80 and articles 106 to 108 and the code of conduct referred to in article 87.

84 The directors shall procure that a register of directors’ interests is maintained in accordance with the provisions in this regard contained in the code of conduct for directors referred to in article 87.

Conduct of directors

85 It is the duty of each director of the company to take decisions (and exercise his/her other powers and responsibilities as a director) in such a way as he/she considers, in good faith, will be most likely to promote the success of the company in achieving its objects (as set out in article 4) and will be in the interests of the company, and irrespective of any office, post, engagement or other connection which he/she may have with any other body which may have an interest in the matter in question.

86 Without prejudice to the principle set out in article 85, each of the directors shall have a duty, in exercising functions as a charity trustee, to act in the interests of the company; and, in particular, must:

86.1 seek, in good faith, to ensure that the company acts in a manner which is in accordance with its charitable purposes;

86.2 act with the care and diligence which it is reasonable to expect of a person who is managing the affairs of another person;

- 86.3 in circumstances giving rise to the possibility of a conflict of interest between the company and any party responsible for the appointment of that director, put the interests of the company before that of the other party;
- 86.4 where any other duty prevents him/her from doing so, disclose the conflicting interest to the company and refrain from participating in any deliberation or decision of the other directors with regard to the matter in question;
- 86.5 ensure that the company complies with any direction, requirement, notice or duty imposed under or by virtue of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005.
- 87 Each of the directors shall comply with the code of conduct (incorporating detailed rules on conflict of interest) prescribed by the board of directors from time to time; for the avoidance of doubt, the code of conduct shall be supplemental to the provisions relating to the conduct of directors contained in these articles of association, and the relevant provisions of these articles shall be interpreted and applied in accordance with the provisions of the code of conduct in force from time to time.

Directors' remuneration and expenses

- 88 No director may serve as an employee (full time or part time) of the company, and no director may be given any remuneration by the company for carrying out his/her duties as a director or as Chair or the holder of any other office under article 74.
- 89 Where a director provides services to the company or might benefit from any remuneration paid to a connected party for such services, then:
- 89.1 the maximum amount of the remuneration must be specified in a written agreement and must be reasonable;
- 89.2 the directors must be satisfied that it would be in the interests of the company to enter into the arrangement (taking account of that maximum amount);
- 89.3 less than half of the directors must be receiving remuneration from the company (or benefit from remuneration of that nature).
- 90 The directors may be paid all travelling and other expenses quarterly incurred by them in connection with their attendance at meetings of directors, general meetings or meetings of committees of directors or otherwise in connection with the carrying-out of their duties.

Powers of directors

- 91 Subject to the provisions of these articles and to any directions given by special resolution, the business of the company shall be managed by the directors who may exercise all the powers of the company.
- 92 A meeting of directors at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the directors.

Proceedings of directors

- 93 Subject to the provisions of these articles, the directors may regulate their proceedings as they think fit.
- 94 Any director may call a meeting of the directors or request the secretary to call a meeting of the directors.
- 95 Questions arising at a meeting of directors shall be decided by a majority of votes; in the case of an equality of votes, the chairperson of a meeting of directors shall have a second or casting vote.
- 96 The quorum for the transaction of the business of the directors shall be four.
- 97 If the quorum required under article 96 is not present within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting, or if during a meeting such a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to such time and place as may be fixed by the chairperson of the meeting.
- 98 If at any time the number of directors in office falls below the number fixed as the quorum, the remaining director(s) may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of calling a general meeting.
- 99 Unless he/she is unwilling to do so, the Chair of the company shall preside as chairperson at every meeting of directors at which he/she is present; if the Chair is unwilling to act as chairperson of a meeting of directors or is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the Vice Chair shall preside as chairperson.
- 100 If neither the Chair nor the Vice Chair is willing to act as chairperson of a meeting of directors, or if neither is present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the directors may appoint one of their number to be chairperson of the meeting.
- 101 The directors may, at their discretion, allow any person who they reasonably consider appropriate, to attend and speak at any meeting of the directors; for the avoidance of doubt, any such person who is invited to attend a directors' meeting shall not be entitled to vote.
- 102 A person invited to attend a meeting of the directors under article 9 shall not be entitled to exercise any of the powers of a director, and shall not be deemed to constitute a director for the purposes of the Act or any provision of these articles.
- 103 All acts done by a meeting of directors or by a meeting of a committee of directors or by a person acting as a director shall, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was a defect in the appointment of any director or that any of them was disqualified from holding office or had vacated office or was not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a director and had been entitled to vote.

- 104 A resolution in writing signed by all the directors entitled to receive notice of a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of directors or (as the case may be) a committee of directors duly convened and held; it may consist of several documents in the same form, each signed by one or more directors.
- 105 A director shall not vote at a meeting of directors or at a meeting of a committee of directors on any resolution concerning a matter in which he/she has, directly or indirectly, a personal interest or duty (unless immaterial) which conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the company.
- 106 For the purposes of the preceding article:
- 106.1 an interest of a person who is taken to be connected with a director under section 252 of the Act, shall be treated as a personal interest of the director;
- 106.2 a director shall be deemed to have a personal interest in relation to a particular matter if a body in relation to which he/she is an employee, director, member of the management committee, officer or elected representative has a personal interest in that matter.
- 107 A director shall not be counted in the quorum present at a meeting in relation to a resolution on which he/she is not entitled to vote.
- 108 The company may (subject to the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005) by ordinary resolution, suspend or relax to any extent, either generally or in relation to any particular matter, the provisions of articles 105 to 107.
- 109 Each director must keep confidential all proceedings and discussions at board meetings unless he/she has been given prior authorisation to disclose a particular matter, by majority decision of the board.
- 110 If a question arises at a meeting of directors or at a meeting of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to vote, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairperson of the meeting; his/her ruling in relation to any director other than himself/herself shall be final and conclusive.

Delegation to committees of directors and holders of offices

- 111 The directors may delegate any of their powers to any committee consisting of one or more directors; they may also delegate to the Chair or a director holding any other office such of their powers as they consider appropriate.
- 112 Any delegation of powers under the preceding article may be made subject to such conditions as the directors may impose and may be revoked or altered.
- 113 Subject to any condition imposed in pursuance of the preceding article, the proceedings of a committee consisting of two or more directors shall be governed by the articles regulating the proceedings of meetings of directors so far as they are capable of applying.

Secretary

- 114 The directors shall (notwithstanding the provisions of the Act) appoint a company secretary, and on the basis that the term of office, remuneration (if any), and other terms and conditions attaching to the appointment of the company secretary shall be as determined by the directors; the company secretary may be removed by the directors at any time.

Minutes

- 115 The directors shall ensure that minutes are made (in books kept for the purpose) of all proceedings at general meetings, meetings of the directors, and meetings of committees of directors; a minute of any meeting of directors or of a committee of directors shall include the names of the directors present and (as far as possible) shall be signed by the chairperson of that meeting.

Accounts

- 116 The directors shall ensure that proper accounting records are maintained in accordance with all applicable statutory requirements.
- 117 The directors shall prepare annual accounts, complying with all relevant statutory requirements.
- 118 Except as provided by law or authorised by the directors or an ordinary resolution of the company, no individual or body is entitled to inspect any of the company's accounting or other records or documents merely by virtue of being a member.

Notices

- 119 Any notice to be given in pursuance of these articles shall be given either in writing or by way of electronic means.
- 120 The company may give any notice to a member either personally or by sending it by post in a pre-paid envelope addressed to the member at his/her registered address or by leaving it at that address; in the case of a member who has notified the company of an electronic address to be used for this purpose, the company may give any notice to that member by way of electronic means.
- 121 A member may give any notice to the company either by sending it by post in a pre-paid envelope addressed to the company at its registered office or by leaving it, addressed to the company secretary, at the company's registered office or (where the company has notified the member of an electronic address to be used for this purpose) by way of electronic means.
- 122 Any notice, if sent by post, shall be deemed to have been given at the expiry of 48 hours after posting; for the purpose of proving that any notice was given, it shall be sufficient to prove that the envelope containing the notice was properly addressed and posted.

- 123 Any notice sent by electronic means shall be deemed to have been given at the expiry of 48 hours after it is sent; for the purpose of proving that any notice sent by electronic means was indeed sent, it shall be sufficient to provide any of the evidence referred to in the relevant guidance issued from time to time by the Chartered Institute of Secretaries and Administrators.
- 124 A member present or represented at any meeting of the company shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and, where requisite, of the purposes for which it was called.

Winding-up

- 125 If on the winding-up of the company any property remains after satisfaction of all the company's debts and liabilities, such property shall be transferred to such charity or charities (whether incorporated or unincorporated) as may be determined by the members of the company at or before the time of dissolution (or, failing such determination, by such court as may have or acquire jurisdiction), to be used solely for a charitable purpose or charitable purposes.
- 126 For the avoidance of doubt, a charity to which property is transferred under article 125 may be a member of the company.
- 127 To the extent that effect cannot be given to article 125 (as read with article 126), the relevant property shall be applied to some charitable purpose or purposes.

Indemnity

- 128 Every director or other officer or auditor of the company shall be indemnified out of the assets of the company (to the extent permitted by sections 232, 234, 235, 532 and 533 of the Act) against any loss or liability which he/she may sustain or incur in connection with the execution of the duties of his/her office; that may include, without prejudice to that generality (but only to the extent permitted by those sections of the Act), any liability incurred by him/her in defending any proceedings (whether civil or criminal) in which judgement is given in his/her favour or in which he/she is acquitted or any liability in connection with an application in which relief is granted to him/her by the court from liability for negligence, default or breach of trust in relation to the affairs of the company.

Insurance

- 129 For the avoidance of doubt, the company shall be entitled to purchase and maintain for any director insurance against any loss or liability which he/she may sustain or incur in connection with the execution of the duties of his/her office, and such insurance may extend to liabilities of the nature referred to in section 232(2) of the Act (negligence etc. of a director).
